

Hi!

I'm Emma Rosen and I'm a children's author, which has got to be the best job in the world.

I've always loved books - reading them, collecting them and writing them. I love flicking through the pages of a brand new book or snuggling up with an old favourite. I even love ebooks and audiobooks

When you read a book you can learn anything, go anywhere and be anyone - how amazing is that?!

Have an amazing year and happy reading!

Emma
